

+34 601 603 737 +34 95 95 21 298 info@AndalusianHouse.com www.AndalusianHouse.com

Ref: 1097

Villa, Mazagon

269,000€

Fantastic beach house with large guest apartment and garage workshop. Set in a unique location with amazing views of the beach and sea, having a private access gate directly to the beach ! The main house on the lower level comprises of spacious patio entrance to hallway with the spacious living room having direct sea views. Past the fitted kitchen there are a total of five bedrooms, two single and three double with three bathrooms, one of which is en-suite to the master bedroom which is accessed across the Andaluz style internal patio. There is also a storeroom or workroom. There is also an external staircase from the Andaluz style internal patio leading to a large roof terrace and the entrance to the guest apartment, the views are amazing. The guest apartment has a living room with American style fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms and two bathrooms. Also, on this level there is a separate staircase access to the double fronted garage and workshop opening out at the street level. This is a unique opportunity to obtain the freehold for a genuine beach front property with endless possibilities for permanent living together with vacation rentals and a possible seasonal beach bus...

This information has been produced in good faith and is believed to be accurate based upon the information supplied by third parties and our own inspections and investigations, but it is not intended to form part of a contract. We apply our best efforts to verify the reliability of this information but cannot guarantee that it is accurate or complete, all data is subject to error and perspective clients should satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to the correctness of each of the statements contained in these particulars.