This is a modern ECO country cottage in a finca of more than 30,000m² of private property which is fully enclosed. The cottage comprises of two bedrooms a bathroom and a huge living room with open plan Kitchen and fire place. There is also an outside toilet and shower in the swimming pool area. There are two covered terraces on each side of the house and the large patio around the swimming pool area. The gorgeous landscape is given over to nature with various mature garden areas of mediterranean trees, aromatic plants, Olives, grapes, figs, lemons, oranges, eucalyptus and rustic paths. The views of the surrounding countryside is beautiful and there are no signs of neighbours, quite and relaxing. The finca has its own water and electricity supply, water is from a bore hole (well) in the property and electricity is from solar panels, so totally self sufficient. Located only 2 kilometers from the village of Villamanrique, 15 Kilometers to El Rocío and Seville city is just 40 kilometers. The beach is 40 kilometers or 30 minutes drive. Very near to Doñana National park and nature reserve. Must See !
